SHELBY CONTEST : BULLHEAD CITY WINNER

Win-a-Shelby GT500 goes to Arizona winner

Gary Harlow of Bullhead City, Arizona, was awarded the keys to a new Ford Shelby GT500 in September, after winning the 2nd Annual Win-a-Shelby raffle contest benefitting the Carroll Shelby Children's Foundation.

The 500-horsepower Vista Blue pony car with white racing stripes was titled to automotive icon Carroll Shelby, who was on hand at Shelby Automobiles headquarters in Las Vegas to make the presentation. The winning ticket was drawn on August 18, during the Automotive Fine Arts Society's annual reception at the Pebble Beach Concours d'Élegance. The Carroll Shelby Children's Foundation helps children worldwide battle life-threatening illnesses, while promoting the importance of organ and tissue donation.

"The Win-a-Shelby raffle is a spectacular fundraiser that gives one lucky car nut the chance to drive off in one of my personal cars," said Shelby, President of the Carroll Shelby Children's Foundation. "Mr. Harlow is a true Shelby enthusiast, and I'm confident that he'll take good care of his new GT500. It's important to remember that his donation to the Foundation and the thousands of generous ticket buyers who took part in this contest will help us aid families across the globe."

In addition to belonging to Mr. Shelby, the raffle prize is the only Shelby GT500 featuring white racing stripes and fitted with a 40th Anniversary Limited Edition Package, with distinctive visual and performance enhancements, including exclusive 40th Anniversary Shelby badges throughout the car.

The Foundation displayed the GT500 and sold raffle tickets at events throughout the US since last August, including SEMA and the Barrett-Jackson Collector Car Auction. Tickets were also available at the Foundation's headquarters in Gardena, California, and by mail. The Foundation fulfills Carroll Shelby autograph requests by mail for a $250 donation. Harlow purchased the winning raffle ticket through a mail donation that accompanied an item for Mr. Shelby to sign.

"I got the call and heard, 'Gary, my name is Carroll Shelby and you have just won a new Shelby GT500'," explained Harlow. "Then ironically, the call was dropped. But I knew by the distinctive voice on the other line that it was really Carroll Shelby. Not only is the Shelby GT500 one of the hottest new cars on the road, this one was actually owned by the legend himself. I'll definitely hold onto this car for a long time." ■
